

February 27, 1929
Wednesday a.m.

Dear Louise:-

Not much news but as I have just written to Grandma, thought you might enjoy a line or two.

Cora was sick yesterday with bowl and stomach trouble, much better this morning. While we were in Kingston Sunday night Edith was helping her mother and grabbed a pan off the stove, burned all the fingers on her left hand <sup>the little</sup> ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> ~~the~~ each finger done up in a cloth.

Pop and Webb Kenyon went to Earville to the sale yesterday, it was quite slippery when they left but the chains cut in so on they went. Last night about 9:30 got a telegram from Sherburne saying everything was alright and they would be home today.
Mr. Rippon was sick so did not